

Dublin County Returning Officer

Conditions of Entry / Attendance at Count

All persons entering the count centre are obliged to comply with the following terms and conditions, also available to view on www.dublincountyreturningofficer.com.

1. A valid count pass is required in order to be permitted to enter the count centre and upon entry you are obliged to surrender your count pass to the security person on duty at the entrance. If you wish to leave and return to the count centre you must obtain a new count pass from security when leaving the count centre and present it on your return to the count centre. Possession of a count pass does not guarantee entry to the count centre. Admission to the count centre at all times is at the discretion of the Returning Officer and his staff.
2. It is not permitted to have in your possession any item or items which could pose a risk to yourself or others present in the count centre. Please further note that flags and banners are not allowed in the count centre. If you are found to have any such items in your possession they will be confiscated by the security personnel on duty and you will be asked to leave the premises. If you refuse to leave you will be removed from the count centre by security personnel with the assistance of the gardai if required.
3. While present in the count centre you must comply with the directions of the security personnel and any staff employed by the Returning Officer at all times. Failure to do so will result in you being asked to leave the count centre. If you refuse to leave you will be removed from the count centre by security personnel with the assistance of the gardai if required.
4. If you engage in any behaviour which is disruptive and interferes with the operation and enjoyment of the count centre you will be asked to leave the count centre. If you refuse to leave you will be removed from the count centre by security personnel with the assistance of the gardai if required.
5. The harassment of staff, candidates or members of the public by the use of offensive, abusive, racist, obscene, threatening or inappropriate language is not permitted and you will be asked to leave the count centre if you engage in this behaviour. If you refuse to leave you will be removed from the count centre by security personnel with the assistance of the gardai if required.
6. The use of violence or threats of violence towards staff employed by the returning officer, candidates or members of the public will result in you being asked to leave the count centre. If you refuse to leave you will be removed from the count centre by security personnel with the assistance of the gardai if required.
7. If you engage in any behaviour which causes malicious damage to and/or damage to the count centre or any items or property of the Returning Officer you will be asked to leave the count centre. If you refuse to leave you will be removed from the count centre by security personnel with the assistance of the gardai if required.
8. The consumption of alcohol or illicit drugs while in the count centre is not permitted. If you are suspected of being intoxicated due to the consumption of alcohol or illicit drugs you will not be permitted to enter the count centre.
9. Smoking in the count centre is not permitted.
10. Leaving personal property unattended while in count centre is not permitted and any such items will be removed by security personnel.

Fergus J. Gallagher
Returning Officer